

You have decided to take on the Bronze Award, that's great! Completing the Bronze Award is a great way to learn how to find a problem in your community, build a team, and get the job done. And if you decide to go solo, it's a great way to know that it only takes one person to make a change! What does it take to complete your Bronze Award? You can find all the info down below!

Before You Get Started:

- ❑ Must be a 4th or 5th grade Junior Girl Scout.
- ❑ Complete a Junior Leadership Journey.
 - This includes all of the sessions and awards for the journey and a completion of a Take Action Project. Suggested timeline- 90 days (this number is only suggested. It is highly dependent on how often your troop meets.)
- ❑ Attend a GSWESTOK Bronze Award Workshop. (This is highly recommended so you know the ins and outs of the award.)

Checklist:

- ❑ Build your Girl Scout Bronze Award team.
 - What is a Girl Scout Junior team? It consists of you and other Girl Scout Juniors who are on this adventure together, plus your troop volunteer/group advisor. If there are no other Girl Scout Juniors in your troop, seek out other Girl Scouts friends in your Service Unit—they can earn the award with you! Or you can fly solo.
 - This is also a good time to think about what you each enjoy doing most. Soon, your team will explore and choose an idea for a Bronze Award Project (a Take Action Project).
- ❑ Explore your Community.
 - To solve any problem, you must first identify it. Start by asking yourself what matters most to you. What connections can you make between the issues that you care about and the issues in your own community?
- ❑ Choose your Take Action Project base on your interests and community needs.
 - Before you pick your project:
 - Your Girl Scout Bronze Award should be a new project. (In other words, you may not take over a previous Bronze, Silver, or Gold Award. It also cannot be the same as your Journey Take Action Project.) Take a look in your neighborhood/city and think about ways you can find a solution to a problem you see.
 - This should allow you to display active leadership. When you educate, coordinate, lead, and/or inspire other people in your efforts you are demonstrating active leadership.
- ❑ Develop your project.

- Now that you've chosen a project, explore its root cause. Address the root cause in a way that displays active leadership. Involve others in your efforts.
- Make a Plan and Put in into Motion.
 - Time to get started! Create a list of the steps you and/or your team needs to do. A team works together and each girl can be responsible for a task. Set deadlines and keep to them! Consider using the chart in the Girl's Guide to Girl Scouting to track your progress.
 - Ask yourself how much time you need to finish your project and if that timeline is realistic. We suggest a timeline of 20 hours minimum, over a 3 month period.
 - Your time and talents are often more important than money. So, be creative! You may realize your project may not need that much money.
- Reflect, Share your Story, and Celebrate!
 - Complete your Bronze Award Final Report by March 1st to be recognized at the Spring Girl Awards Ceremony.
 - When submitting your Final Award include any additional items (photos, pliers, budget sheets, etc.) and sent electronically to info@gswestok.org. If you choose to hand deliver the final report please keep a copy of these items for your records. (Paperwork must be filled out by each girl individually).
