

Girl Scout Day at the Capitol/Troop 1912

March 21, 2012 – State Capitol Building, OKC

Capitol Meeting – Honorary Chairs Former Edmond Mayor Sandra Naifeh and Former Lt. Gov. Jari Askins

- 9-10 a.m. - Registration on 2nd floor Rotunda
- 10 a.m. - Session with girls – Welcome announcement by Sandra Naifeh
- 10:15-10:30 a.m. – Honorable Arlene Johnson, Presiding Judge for the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals – to give overview of judicial system and the value of girls/women entering law professions.
- 10:30-10:45 a.m. – Jari Askins talks about her support of Girl Scouts and how important it is to get involved
- 10:45 a.m.-11:00 a.m. – Rep. Emily Virgin welcomes girls to Capitol and will share why she is excited to be part of Girl Scouts in our state, and the importance of getting involved in state issues and advocacy. She also will talk about how to meet with legislators, tips on what to tell them about supporting issues that affect girls, how they can have a voice, etc..
- 11:15 a.m. - Photo with Representatives
- Lunch – 11:30-noon: box lunch
- Noon-12:30 p.m. – Individual time to stop by your Legislator’s office for a visit and introduction.
- 12:45-1:30 p.m. - Troop 1912 pinning ceremony – Blue Room. Capitol dignitaries to attend. Girl Scouts of Eastern Oklahoma will provide presentation of the colors. Emcee Maggie Stokes, weekend anchor for KOCO Channel 5 and a former Girl Scout and recent volunteer, will give official welcome and a brief presentation on Troop 1912, this is part of our 100th celebration.
  - Honorary Co-Chairs of Troop 1912: Rep. Lee Denney and Sen. Susan Paddack.
  - Alumnae members from Girl Scouts-Western Oklahoma will conduct the pinning ceremony.
- Emcee will dismiss everyone and direct them to either the House or Senate Gallery for recognition.
- End the day with meeting any legislators you may have missed

Other Activities For The Day

Be sure to visit the 1st floor of the Capitol to visit the information booths presented by both Girl Scout Councils in Oklahoma to find out more about activities like STEM, Alumnae, Volunteering and more!

Check with the Capitol staff on the 1st floor to take an official tour of the building.

Take time after your Capitol Day activities to visit the Oklahoma History Museum located across the street.

