

PROMOTE THE VOTE

Troop Experience Box

Activity Guide

Juniors & Cadettes

Please complete the following activities to achieve the patch requirements:

Puzzle of Power: Voting Rights Timeline

Vote Quest: Piecing Together the History of Voting Rights

Time to piece together the story of voting rights! This puzzle will show you key moments in history where people fought for the right to vote. As you complete the timeline, you'll learn about important events like the Civil Rights Act and the Voting Rights Act. It's a fun way to see how voting has changed over time!

DIY Future Voter Button

Voter in the Making: Design Your Future Vote Badge

Design your very own "Future Voter" button! Get creative and show off what voting means to you. You can add fun drawings, powerful words, or anything that shows how excited you are to vote one day. Wear your button proudly as a reminder that your voice matters!

Girl Scout Cookie Election

Cookie Candidates: The Flavor Face-Off

Host your very own Cookie Election! Use the kit to run an election just like the real thing, but with cookies! You and your troop can vote for your favorite flavors and see which one wins. This fun activity helps you learn how elections work with a fun twist.

Civic Explorer Scavenger Hunt

Civic Sleuth: Your Community Adventure Hunt!

Get ready for a scavenger hunt that takes you on a journey through your community or online! Your mission: find important places like local government buildings, look up who your elected officials are, and learn about the issues that matter where you live. Use the printed scavenger hunt list to guide your search and discover how your community works! Whether you're exploring your town or using the internet, this activity helps you become a real-world civic detective!

Branches in Balance Video

How Our Government Works Together

In this video, you'll discover the three parts of our government: the legislative branch makes the laws, the executive branch makes sure everyone follows them, and the judicial branch decides if the laws are fair. Watch how these branches work together to keep things balanced—it's like teamwork for our country!

Democracy BINGO Challenge

Citizen Power BINGO: Unlock Your Civic Superpowers!

Play BINGO and learn how to make a difference in your community! Each square will challenge you to learn about things like voting, helping your neighborhood, or attending community events. Get ready to shout "BINGO!" as you discover new ways to be a responsible citizen.

Election Night Watch Party

Democracy in Action: Host an Election Night Bash!

Throw an Election Night Watch Party! Grab the items included in your kit and invite friends or family to watch the election results. Use the conversation starters to chat about what's happening and why elections are important. It's a great way to celebrate democracy together!

PROMOTE THE VOTE

Troop Experience Box

Activity Guide

Senior & Ambassadors

Please complete all activities to achieve the patch requirements:

Branches in Balance Video

How Our Government Works Together

In this video, you'll discover the three parts of our government: the legislative branch makes the laws, the executive branch makes sure everyone follows them, and the judicial branch decides if the laws are fair. Watch how these branches work together to keep things balanced—it's like teamwork for our country!

Create Your Own Ballot Measure

Show your inner writing skills

Girls, it's time to get creative and create your own Ballot Measure. Think about an issue that is important to you and create a new law. This is your time to shine! In a short paragraph explain why this issue should be voted on and made into a new law.

Voter Registration Drive

Voter in the Making: Reach out to People

VOTE VOTE VOTE! Girls let's get out there and tell people the importance of voting and why their vote matters. We hope this hands on approach instills a sense of responsibility and empowerment in our Girl Scouts. You can organize a voter registration drive in your community. You can partner with League of Women Voters, Stephanie Henson (stephanie.hensons2@gmail.com) for more information on voting. Also, you can encourage people to register through the Turbo vote link: <https://lft.turbovote.org/?r=gswo>

Democracy BINGO Challenge

Citizen Power BINGO: Unlock Your Civic Superpowers!

Come and join the fun with a Bingo game that encourages you to learn about voting. The girls will learn about Absentee Ballot, Executive Branch and what the role of a Lobbyist is by playing the game. The person calling Bingo will read off a statement about each Bingo square that is called. Get ready to shout "Bingo" as you discover more about voting.

DIY Future Voter Button

Voter in the Making: Design Your Future Vote Badge!

Design your very own "Future Voter" buttons to wear proudly. Get creative these buttons can include personalized messages, drawings, or designs that reflect what voting means to you. The button is a great way to boost girls' confidence by expressing their values and beliefs in a creative way. We hope that this activity empowers you to vote one day and become an informed active citizen.

Girl Scout Cookie Election

Cookie Candidates: The Flavor Face-Off

Host your very own cookie election! Use the kit to run an election just like the real thing, but with cookies! You and your troop can vote for your favorite flavors and see which one wins. This fun activity helps you learn how elections work. Consider including conversation starters such as, "What key issues are most important to you for the cookie election? Or "How do you think the cookies will affect our community?"

Election Night Watch Party

Democracy in Action: Host an Election Night Bash!

Throw an Election Night Watch Party! Grab the items included in your kit and invite friends or family to watch the election results. Use the conversation starters to chat about what's happening and why elections are important. It's a great way to celebrate democracy together! Include conversation starters like, "What policy issues are most important to you and why?" or "How do you think local elections impact our daily lives?" These prompts can encourage meaningful discussions about political engagement and the importance of being informed voters.